

Speaker Introduction

We are happy – and intrigued - to bring you Garry Golden, Futurist, as a key speaker on May 12, 2017.
Please join us as Garry presents on a very fascinating topic!

Tapping Your Inner Futurist: The Art and Science of Looking at the Future of Healthcare Information Systems

Here is a future glimpse of part of Garry's presentation...

Part One: Foresight 101 Demystifying the Future

A series of visual slides that challenge misperceptions of futures thinking (e.g. prediction; blue sky thinking); and highlight the pragmatic role foresight plays in confronting uncertainties of social, political and technological change.

Quick introduction of foresight frameworks:

- 1) Key Activities: Identifying-Monitoring Change; Imagining Implications; Communicating the Need for Change
- 2) Understanding Mechanisms of Change: Trends, Events, and Choices
- 3) Imagining the 'Four Futures' for healthcare sector: Continued Growth; Discipline/Constrained; Transformed; Decline/Collapse

Garry Golden is an academically trained Futurist who speaks and consults on issues shaping business and society in the 21st century.
