

Rachel Zorn is the Manager of the Telehealth Portfolio at UW Health. After graduating with her MPH from Yale School of Public Health (Health Care Management focus), she returned to Wisconsin and joined UW Health's Administrative Fellowship Program. She is a Returned Peace Corps Volunteer, working in rural West Africa to strengthen local clinic operations and supply chain management. During her time in New Haven she served as the Executive Director for the Haven Free Clinic and worked at NYU Langone Medical Center's Department of Clinical Quality and Effectiveness.