Traditional practice of healthcare represents 10% - 20% of one's health. What about the rest? Much of our well-being is determined by how we live, where we live, genetics, stress levels, access to food, safe and stable housing, and more. Join us and hear what our panel has to say and how you can help as we explore the following:

- How has SDOH evolved?
- What is being done now with SDOH to inform and improve healthcare?
- How are government agencies driving SDOH health improvement?
- How can SDOH reduce a provider's burden?
- What potential, unrealized opportunities are possible with expanded use of SDOH in our healthcare ecosystem?

Panelists:

- Traci Archibald, Director of Division of ESRD, Population and Community Health, Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), Center for Clinical Standards and Quality(CCSQ) – (Confirmed)
